

Les stars de la télé et du cinéma
Level 3-5

Nom: _____ Classe: _____

Nowadays you will be hard pushed to find a home without a television in developed countries. In fact, everyday you are exposed to the world of media. Most films we watch in the cinemas in Britain are American but France is also famous for its actors. Chapter 1 in Expo 3 has introduced you to the media in France. It is now your opportunity to take your learning in the classroom a little further.

You will have two weeks to complete your project and if you need help whilst completing it, your teacher will be on hand. You will answer the questions in the space provided or an extra A4 paper if needed.

This is the checklist for your project. Tick the box once you have completed the section.

I have answered the questions about Disney film
I have answered the questions about the Cannes Film Festival
I have completed the level 3 reading exercise
I have completed the level 4-5 reading exercise
I have completed the level 3-5 writing exercise

We of course want you to do well - but know that some of you do not have internet access at home. For the time of your project, the MFL block will be open from 1pm so that you may borrow a laptop and talk to a teacher.

Some very well known films have got different names in French. Can you work out what these are and write them down?

1. La belle et le clochard: _____

2. Blanche Neige: _____

3. Le roi lion: _____

4. La belle et la bête: _____

5. Pirates des Caraïbes: _____

6. Maman, j'ai encore raté l'avion: _____

You can find help on page 20 in Expo 3 vert - or you can log on to a French website: www.jedessine.com. By navigating to Coloriages Disney, you will find your answers.

Find some pictures for the above films and stick them in the box below.

The Cannes Film Festival takes place every year. Type either www.festival-cannes.fr into your browser if you want results in French or www.festival-cannes.com to get them in English. Then try to answer the following questions:

1. Where is Cannes located?

2. The festival first appeared in 1946, very shortly after the second world war. Why do you think Cannes was chosen as its venue?

3. There were 52 films on show this year. Which ones won the major prizes?

4. What is la Croisette?

5. What is le tapis rouge?

6. What is la Palme d'Or?

Read the text. Answer the questions in English

Le soir, je regarde la télé. J'adore le Bigdil (c'est un jeu télévisé) et Sous le Soleil (c'est une série). J'aime la lecture aussi. Je préfère les livres de Harry Potter et les magazines de musique pop. Le weekend dernier, j'ai mangé avec ma famille et après, j'ai regardé un DVD.
Laetitia.

1. What sort of program is Sous le Soleil?

2. What is the French name of the game show Laetitia likes?

3. Name 2 things she likes reading

4. Last weekend, who did she eat with?

5. What did she do afterwards?

LEVEL 3-5 WRITING

Write a paragraph in French about what you like to watch on TV and/or at the cinema. If you are aiming for level 4, remember to include your opinion. If you are aiming for level 5, remember to include the past tense to say what you watched on TV or at the cinema recently. Use the vocabulary in the box below to help you.

- J'aime = I like
- Je n'aime pas = I don't like
- Je déteste = I hate
- Je préfère = I prefer
- Je pense que c'est... = I think it is...
- Hier, j'ai regardé... = Yesterday I watched...
- La semaine dernière, j'ai vu... = Last week I saw...

We hope you enjoyed the project - and found out a load of stuff about the cinema and television in France.

French people love the movies. If you do too, you are in good company!
